

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

Romantic Era Research Presentation

Due Friday, NOVEMBER 4th

My composer: _____ My musical work: _____

Prompt

Why is this composer and this work significant to 19th-Century music? Include the musical context of the Romantic Era, a biography of your composer, and analysis of your musical work.

Purpose

You already learned about your composer and musical work from writing your paper, but it's time to share your in-depth research with the class! By the end of the presentations, you should know the significant impact made by your composer AND others from the 19th century.

Presentation Requirements

- MUST address the following four components using separate slides:
 - Context of 19th century music
 - Composer biography
 - Analysis of selected piece
 - Listening of piece that exemplifies style of composer
- 5-10 minutes in length
- Trifold board, google slides, Lensoo, or Comic Strip It
- Visually stimulating
- Presenter elaborates on what the audience sees. Examples include:
 - Slides give bullet points, and presenter elaborates
 - Trifold board gives pictures and key dates, and presenter elaborates
 - NOT reading or memorizing verbatim the slide content

Grading

Your presentation is due EMAILED at the beginning of class on Friday, November 4th. Your presentation will be graded based on a rubric including Required Content, Research, Mechanics, and Organization. You may submit your presentation to Mrs. Kirk by October 25th for feedback prior to the due date. Library research days are scheduled for Monday, October 10th and Thursday, October 27th.